Public Markets – General

Control of public markets. 1959/241.

3. (1) All public markets shall be under the control and supervision of the Chief Supervisor.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of this regulation, the Chief Supervisor shall account for all fees and revenues accruing to all public markets and for all other moneys paid to him in consequence of the exercise of any powers or duties conferred or imposed on him by the Act or by these regulations in accordance with the Public Account Rules, 1957.

First Schedule. 1959/241.

(3) Out of the charges specified in the First Schedule as the charges payable for the slaughtering of animals outside normal slaughtering hours and during market close hours, the Chief Supervisor on receipt of the same shall pay or cause to be paid to every officer, other than himself, authorised to examine the carcass and organs of any animal slaughtered outside normal slaughtering hours and during market close hours and to the cleaner responsible for cleaning the premises of any public slaughterhouse after any animal is so slaughtered, the appropriate sum specified in the First Schedule.

(4) In this regulation, "fees" include tolls, rents, rates, dues and other sums payable in respect of any public market.

Refusal to comply with directions of Chief Supervisor.

4. If any person in any public market refuses or neglects to comply with any direction of the Chief Supervisor for the maintenance of order or regularity or for the carrying out of any of the provisions of these regulations or of the Act, such person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

Chief Supervisor not to be interested in sales in public markets.

5. (1) Neither the Chief Supervisor nor any other person employed on the staff of any public market shall

(a) be personally interested in the sale of any marketable commodity offered for sale in a public market; or

(b) receive directly or indirectly any emolument of any kind on account of services or facilities provided or to be provided in a public market apart from his authorised salary, wages or allowances.

(2) No person shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this regulation by reason only of the fact that he is a shareholder in any company doing business in a public market.

(3) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $100.

Days and hours of opening of public markets.

6. (1) The days on which and the hours during which each public market shall be open to the public shall be determined by the Chief Supervisor, and the Chief Supervisor shall post or cause to be posted at each public market the days and hours of opening applicable to it:

Provided that no public market other than a fish market shall be open on any day before the hour of 6 o'clock in the morning or after the hour of 10 o'clock in the evening.

(2) If any unauthorised person is found in a public market during closed hours he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

9. (1) All traffic of every description in any public market shall circulate as directed by the Chief Supervisor.

(2) The Chief Supervisor may set aside any area in or part of any public market for the parking of the vehicles of those doing business at such public market.

(3) No person shall park a vehicle in any public market unless he is doing business at such public market.

(4) No person shall park a vehicle in any public market except in the area or part set aside for the parking of vehicles, or, except with the permission of the Chief Supervisor, for a longer period than 1 hour.

(5) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

Control of fishing boats. 1983/190.

9A. (1) No owner or person in charge of a fishing boat shall make fast that boat to a jetty except

(a) for the purpose of loading, unloading or refuelling the boat; or

(b) on the directions of the Superintendent.

(2) No owner or person in charge of a fishing boat that is made fast to a jetty for the purposes specified in paragraph (1) shall keep the boat so made fast after the loading, unloading or refuelling has been completed except with the permission of the Superintendent.

(3) The Superintendent may remove or cause to have removed a fishing boat that is made fast to a jetty contrary to paragraph (1) or (2) or is otherwise obstructing the flow of traffic within the 30 metre area of the jetty.

(4) Where the Superintendent removes a fishing boat in accordance with paragraph (3), he may place it in the custody of the Barbados Port Authority for safe keeping; and that Authority shall so keep it until requested in writing by the Superintendent to release the boat.

(5) The owner or person in charge of a fishing boat that has been removed by the Superintendent under paragraph (3) shall pay to the Superintendent the charge specified in the First Schedule for the release of the boat, and any other expenses incurred in the removal of the boat. First Schedule.

(6) On payment of the charge and expenses referred to in paragraph (5), the Superintendent shall cause the fishing boat in respect of which the charge and expenses were paid, to be released and handed over to the owner or person in charge of the boat.

(7) The Superintendent may give directions generally for the control of fishing boats using the jetty.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of this regulation, any person who contravenes paragraphs (1) or (2) or any directions given by the Superintendent, under this regulation is guilty of an offence and is liable to a fine of $1 000 or to imprisonment for a term of 6 months.

(9) In this regulation, "jetty" means a jetty that forms part of a public market.

10. (1) Every tenant of a stand or a space shall each day at the closing of each public market remove or cause to be removed from his stand or space all marketable commodities or other articles therein. Removal of marketable commodities etc. from stands and spaces.

(2) All persons bringing marketable commodities or other articles into, or carrying them from, a public market shall load, unload, stack and otherwise deal with them as directed by the Chief Supervisor, and shall tether and keep all animals used in the transport of such commodities or articles in such place or places as the Superintendent shall direct.

(3) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

11. (1) The Electrical Engineer may at all reasonable times enter any market stall or any other part of any public market for the purpose of inspecting any electrical installation therein, and if at any time he is of opinion that any such installation is in a dangerous condition, he shall forthwith remove it or cause it to be removed. Public Markets – Market Stalls

Chief Supervisor may let market stalls. First Schedule.

25. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, the Chief Supervisor may on the payment of the appropriate rent as set out in the First Schedule let to any approved person any market stall in any public market.

Tenant of market stall licensed to occupy and use it for period of tenancy.

26. The tenant of any market stall let under the preceding regulation is hereby licensed to occupy and use the market stall let to him for the period of the tenancy, provided that he complies with the provisions of the Act and of these regulations.

Stalls, stands and spaces.

27. (1) Stalls shall be let by the month or for such longer periods and on such terms as the Chief Supervisor may decide.

(2) Stands and spaces may be let by the month or by the day.

(3) Where a stall or stand is let by the month, the tenancy may be determined by either party on a month's notice in writing or on any other agreed period of written notice.

Rent to be paid in advance.

28. All rent payable under regulation 25 hereof shall be payable in advance, and in default of payment the tenant if in occupation shall be forthwith ejected by the Chief Supervisor, who may in addition to any other remedy for the recovery of the rent seize and sell any goods in the market stall sufficient for the payment thereof.

Stall receipts.

29. (1) Every person on the payment of rent in respect of a stall in any public market shall be issued with a receipt for the same (hereinafter called a "stall receipt").

(2) Every stall receipt shall contain the name of the tenant, the period of the tenancy, the number of the stall rented and the amount paid, and shall be signed by the Chief Supervisor.

Seller's tickets.

30. (1) Every person on the payment of rent in respect of a stand or a space in any public market shall be issued with a ticket (hereinafter referred to as a "seller's ticket").

(2) Every seller's ticket shall contain the name of the tenant, the day or month for which the ticket is issued, the number of the stand, if it is issued in respect of a stand, and the amount paid, and shall be signed by the Chief Supervisor.

Fishseller's ticket.

31. (1) Every person who desires to bring into, or to sell or offer or expose for sale, or to bone, any fish other than imported fish, in any public market shall pay to the Chief Supervisor the fee prescribed in the First Schedule, and on payment of such fee the Chief Supervisor shall issue to him a ticket (hereinafter called a "fishseller's ticket").

First Schedule.

(2) A fishseller's ticket shall authorise the holder thereof (subject to the payment of the appropriate toll) to bring into and to sell, or offer or expose for sale, and to bone, any fish other than imported fish, in a public market.

(3) No fishseller's ticket shall be issued to any person who is not licensed as a fishseller in accordance with the provisions of regulation 48.

Production of stall receipts and seller's tickets etc.

32. (1) No person shall bring into, or sell or offer or expose for sale, any marketable commodity or other article in any public market unless he is in possession of a valid and unexpired stall receipt or seller's ticket.

(2) Every person bringing into, or selling or offering or exposing for sale in any public market any marketable commodity or other article shall produce for inspection his stall receipt or seller's ticket, as the case may be, on being required so to do by the Chief Supervisor.

(3) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $50.

Production of fish-seller's tickets etc.

33. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding regulation, no person shall bring into, or sell or offer or expose for sale, or bone, any fish not being imported fish in any public market unless he is in possession of a valid fishseller's ticket.

(2) Every person bringing into, or selling or offering or exposing for sale or boning in, any public market any fish not being imported fish shall produce for inspection his fishseller's ticket on being required so to do by the Chief Supervisor.

Marketable commodities in public markets to be sold from market stalls.

34. (1) No person in any public market shall display, expose for sale or sell any marketable commodity or other article

(a) except at a market stall rented or occupied by him and for which he has paid the prescribed rent; or

(b) except within such market stall rented or occupied by him.

(2) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $25.

Display of marketable commodities.

35. All marketable commodities and other articles in any market stall shall be displayed as directed by the Chief Supervisor.

Places in which marketable commodities may be sold.

36. The Chief Supervisor may from time to time direct what marketable commodities or other articles may be exposed for sale or sold in different parts of any public market.

Wholesale and retail trades.

37. The Chief Supervisor may direct that either wholesale or retail trade shall be confined to a specified part or specified parts of any public market.

The Chief Supervisor may require certain information.

38. (1) The Chief Supervisor may at any time require from any person in any public market information as to the quantities or types of marketable commodities brought into such market by him for sale or sold therein.

(2) If any person refuses or neglects to give such information or knowingly gives incorrect information, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

Market stalls to be kept clean.

39. (1) Every tenant of a market stall in any public market shall at all times keep all parts of such market stall perfectly clean and free from refuse.

(2) Where any tenant refuses or neglects so to do, the Chief Supervisor shall cause the market stall to be cleaned, and the expenses incurred in so doing may be recovered by the Chief Supervisor from such tenant by seizure and sale by the Chief Supervisor of any goods in such market stall sufficient for the payment thereof, and such tenant shall in addition be liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

Market stalls to be cleaned every day.

40. The Chief Supervisor shall see that all the market stalls are properly cleaned every day.

Summary determination of tenancy on conviction.

41. (1) If the tenant of any market stall is convicted for a breach of any of the provisions of these regulations, or of the Act, his tenancy may be summarily determined by the Chief Supervisor.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, a conviction for an offence under any Act or subsidiary legislation for the time being in force, being an offence connected with the giving of short weight or measure or the possession or use of defective weights or measures or defective weighing or measuring instruments, shall be deemed to be a conviction for a breach of the provisions of these regulations.

Failure to keep open market stall.

42. Any tenant of a market stall who fails to keep open or occupy or use his stall for more than 7 consecutive days without the consent of the Chief Supervisor, shall be deemed to have terminated his tenancy.

No market stall to be sub-let.

43. (1) No tenant of a market stall shall sub-let such stall to any other person.

(2) Where any tenant sub-lets a market stall in contravention of this regulation his tenancy shall be deemed to have been terminated and the person in occupation of the stall shall, upon being requested by the Chief Supervisor so to do, vacate the stall and remove therefrom all goods belonging to him.

(3) Where any such person fails to vacate his market stall and remove therefrom his goods when requested to do so, the Chief Supervisor may eject such person and cause such goods to be removed from the market.
